Reading books can help you to make sense of the world, provide a refuge from it and maybe, one day, inspire you to build a better one.

D'you want to know where real magic lives?
It lives within the pages of books. Reading for fun can change who you are and who you can be. 😊📚

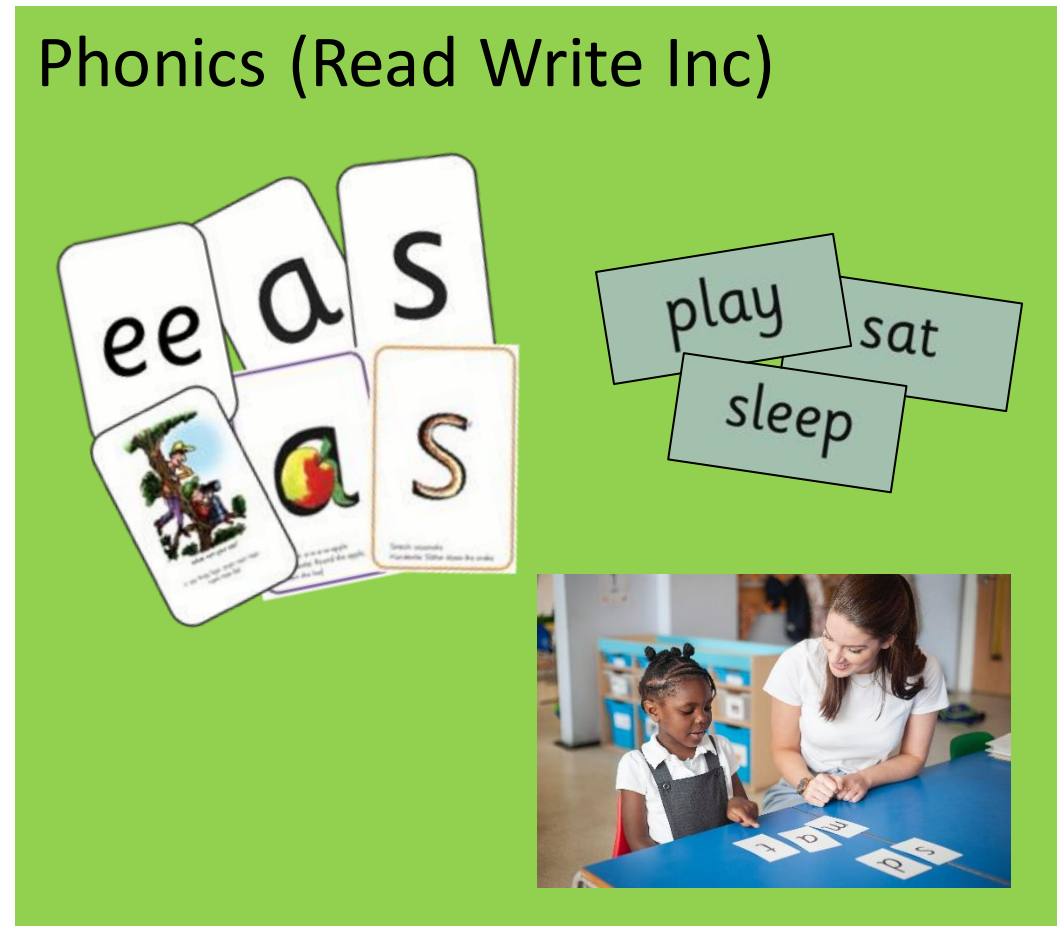

Take a look at a few of our favourite books while you wait.

Reading for pleasure

Phonics (Read Write Inc)

Both aspects are equally as important

Reading for pleasure

- Bedtime stories
- Let your child see you enjoying your own reading!

WHY?

Reading one picture book to your child every day introduces them to 78,000 words every year.

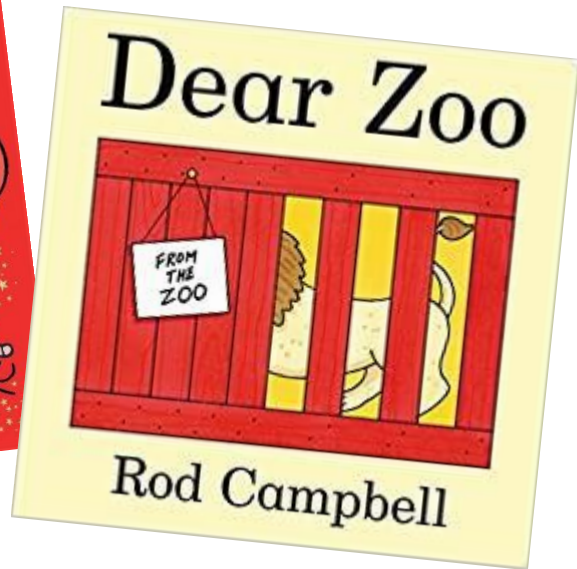

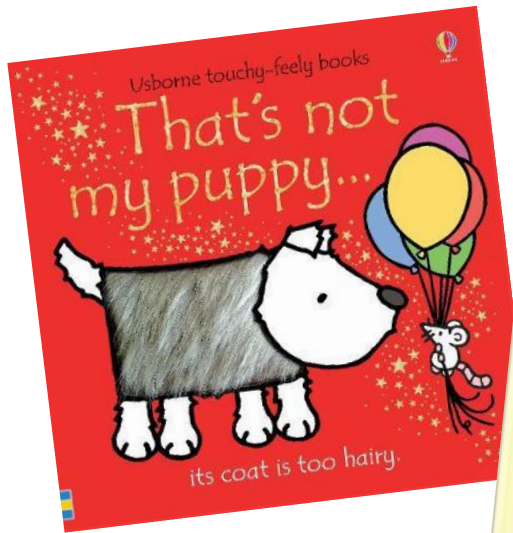

“Vocabulary at age 4 is the best predictor of achievement at age 16 out of all measures yet studied.”

Roulstone et al 2011

AND mostly because they love it!

Which books to choose?

- If your child enjoys it- it's a good book!
- <https://www.booktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/bookfinder/>
- Visit Callington Library- take part in their summer book challenges.

Find children's books for every age...

Reading for pleasure at school

- Daily story times
- Open access to our book corner
- Storytelling activities
- Library visits
- Reading partners with Class 4
- Volunteer readers (soon!)

The importance of reading for pleasure

- Why learn to read if you've never gained pleasure from it?
- Reading for pleasure and letters and sounds work hand in hand. They are equally as important. Children will not thrive in literacy unless they have both.

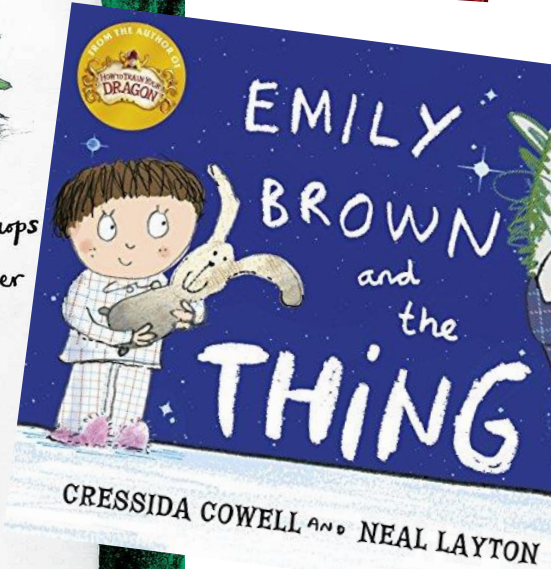

GRESSIDA COWELL'S Waterstones Children's Laureate Charter
